Probable Cause to Arrest

April 18, 2016, Boehm warns Culbreath about arrest of co-conspirator and drug customer of Culbreath's; Boehm wants purchase methamphetamine directly from Culbreath

7. Your affiant has confirmed through law enforcement records that on April 18, 2016, at approximately 8:28 p.m., Erik Boehm and Larry Culbreath had the following conversation. During their conversation, Boehm, who identified himself as "Rocco", explained to Culbreath that DEA has arrested Larry Roger Beitler, Jr. (hereinafter "Beitler"), who is charged elsewhere, and his associate. DEA SA William Rodgers had previously identified Boehm with the assistance of electronic surveillance on Friday, February 26, 2016, which captured Boehm and Larry Beitler meeting in Bethlehem, PA. DEA agents know Boehm uses the nickname "Rock". In the conversation, when Boehm said "you were in my car the other night" and referred to himself as being with "Big L," he was referring to coming with Beitler in Boehm's Honda to purchase methamphetamine from Culbreath. When Boehm referred to Beitler getting arrested "about a month ago," he was telling Culbreath about Beitler's arrest on March 26, 2016, by the Allentown Police Department, who stopped Beitler on Lehigh Street and seized approximately two ounces of methamphetamine from him. Beitler had just purchased that methamphetamine from Culbreath.

Boehm told Culbreath that he would probably be down the next day (April 19, 2016) to purchase one ounce of methamphetamine. Culbreath agreed.

Culbreath: Hello?

Boehm: H?

Culbreath: Who this?

Boehm: It's Rocco, you were in my car the other night. Did you hear me?

Culbreath: Who you was with? Who you was with?

Boehm: I was with, with big L, big L.

Boehm: Listen, yo, yo, I just got a call, they got... they got the whole crew.

Culbreath: Who?

Boehm: The cops! They supposedly got them. I am up in the mountains, I... I stayed up at the Poconos.

Culbreath: They got who?

Boehm: Larry and Ellie and all of them motherfuckers!

Culbreath: And Ellie... Who's Ellie?

Boehm: Some lady. All I know is a got a phone call, I'm going to get a new number. I got a phone call... I only fuck.., been fucking with them guys for like two (2) months. Okay?

Culbreath: Wha... What?

Boehm: Yeah, I am just letting you know, just... because, you, you do... try to do what I do, so I don't want to see nothing' happen to you, I don't even know you like that but I am trying to... Someone called me and said that they got them at 6:00, this morning.

Boehm: So I don't know, if it's okay if I... if I call you, I'm not... I don't know what to do, I don't know what to do 'cause he's gone.

Culbreath: Yeah, yeah, I mean, we can do something, you know I mean? We can figure it out.

Boehm: Okay, alright, 'cause listen uh... I'll get at you then and we'll speak, Cause' I'm really doing, I'm doing a lot of foot work out here, I do... You know what I mean? What he gave you the other day, that was all me.

I don't know if it's true, but somebody called me and I got good sources and that's what they told me they said 'Yo, they got them they... they hit his girlfriend's house, they took the old man George, uh... and a couple other people, so...' "*

Culbreath: Damn! What the fuck they get them for? You don't know though? Like it was a raid, or it was like, it was on him?

Boehm: I don't know... I think it was the big boys... I don't know, I don't know. He got hit um... He got... he didn't tell you he got hit the other? He got hit...

[Voice Overlap].

Culbreath: Alright, alright bro.

Boehm: He got... he went to rehab, so, I'm just waiting for him to get home, until then this is how I feed myself. You understand what I'm saying?

Culbreath: Alright I got you bro, just hit me. Holla at me alright?

[Voices overlap].

Boehm: So, I'll hit you back... So, what's the time frame? What's the... What's the, what's the shut off?

[Voices overlap].

Culbreath: There ain't no time frame, any time frame, any time frame, just hit me ahead of time so I can put it together.

[Voices overlap].

Boehm: Okay, okay. Alright, I'll hit you up uh... I'll hit you up in a couple of hours if that's okay?

Culbreath: Yeah just let me know!

Boehm: I'm up at the Poconos! I'm all the way up.

[Voices overlap].

Culbreath: What you might need? What you might... But what you might need?

Boehm: Um, probably... We'll just wait 'til tomorrow.

Culbreath: Yeah, yeah, yeah... yeah
Boehm: I'll probably. I'll start... I'll just get one [1].
Culbreath: Alright, hit me tomorrow.
Boehm: Alright, I'll hit you up later or whatever, I'll hit you tomorrow.

Person #1: I was thinkings...

[Voice Overlap].

End of conversation.

25. On April 27, 2016, at approximately 10:14 am, physical and electronic surveillance observed Culbreath at the US Post Office, 442 W. Hamilton Street, Allentown, PA. Culbreath was observed in possession of a black bag, similar to the one in his possession on April 26, 2016, after meeting with Duggan. Physical and electronic surveillance verified Culbreath mailed an envelope at the location.

26. Your affiant contacted USPI Herzog and informed him of the matter. USPI Herzog confirmed Culbreath had mailed an envelope. USPI Herzog reported the envelope was addressed to Person #1, 1501 Miramar St. #309, Los Angeles, CA 90026. USPI Herzog reported the return address on the envelope was Larry Culbreath, 1246 W. Walnut St., Allentown, PA 18102. USPI Herzog reported the envelope tracking number as 9505.5105.5045.6118.3467.19. Your affiant knows from the above conversation that Culbreath mailed Person #1 $16,500 at this time.

27. On April 28, 2016, between approximately 1:43 p.m. and 1:46 p.m., law enforcement records show the following conversation between Culbreath and Person #1. Your affiant knows the number provided by Culbreath to Person #1, in the message listed below, was the USPS tracking number assigned to the envelope mailed by Culbreath to Person #1.

Person #1: I need the numbers by the way.

Culbreath: 9505.5105.5045.6118.3467.19.

End of messages.

28. Also on April 28, 2016, law enforcement records show the following conversation between Culbreath and Erik Boehm, a/k/a "Rock." Boehm was identified as a multi-ounce methamphetamine customer of Culbreath during this investigation.

Boehm: How we lookin for today? This evening?

Culbreath: I'm trying

*Boehm: My n*gga. Just let me know*

Culbreath: Copy.

End of messages.

29. During the conversation above, Boehm is inquiring as to whether Culbreath will have methamphetamine later that evening. Your affiant knows at the time of their conversation, Culbreath and Duggan did not have any methamphetamine, and had just invested $16,500 in a shipment from Person #1 (described above). Culbreath and Duggan talked later that same day and Duggan confirmed he had nothing either. At approximately 1:47 p.m. on that same date, law enforcement records show that Culbreath provided the USPS tracking number to Duggan in a text according to law enforcement sources, and this number was for the USPS parcel containing the $16,500, based upon the above described Person #1/Culbreath conversation. Your affiant believes Culbreath provided the number to Duggan as well as Person #1 because a large portion of the money was Duggan's.

April 30, 2016, Person #1 has 3 pounds of methamphetamine to mail, not 4

30. On April 30, 2016, the following series of messages occurred between Person #1 and Culbreath.

Culbreath: Make sure...that glasshouse fire.

Person #1: I'm here with my boy now. He only got 3.

Culbreath: What I need 4.

Culbreath: You knew that.

Culbreath: So get the otha one...

Person #1: Bro stop coming at me like that fr [for real].

Person #1: I just said that.

Culbreath: Cut it out.

Person #1: I'm just keepin you updated.

End of messages.

31. During the text messages, Culbreath was asking for Person #1 to make sure the methamphetamine was of a good quality when he said "make sure that glasshouse fire." Person #1 then explained his source only had three pounds. Culbreath was not happy because he requested four pounds.

May 1, 2016, Person #1 can only get an extra ½ pound of methamphetamine to add to the 3 pounds, Culbreath asks him to make up difference with either marijuana or pills

32. Law enforcement records show the a follow up conversation occurred on May 1, 2016, at approximately 1:15 p.m., when Person #1 indicated to Culbreath, "All the other are sold. He said he bout to conversation his other boy and see if he got some, but push come to shove he got like a lil over a half left and I can add a couple oz out of my stash if possible. Other than that he can get the non-shattered kind." Culbreath responded, "Copy lets get it," and "If u cant make up for the rest with some loud or pills." Your affiant knows from his experience that "loud" was a coded reference to marijuana and in the conversation above, Person #1 agreed to provide over three pounds of methamphetamine to Culbreath.

May 2, 2016, Person #1 can't get last ½ pound of methamphetamine, so he is adding 6 ounces to the 3 pounds, and also mailing ¼ pound of marijuana

33. Law enforcement records show that at approximately 2:05 p.m., Person #1 indicated to Culbreath, "Skittles didn't come through, but I got you a QP of some Private reserve OG. Dude didn't even have a whole half and he was tryna tax me so I sent you my last 6 oz and kept the change in my pocket. Made more sense." Your affiant knew this was confirmation Person #1 had not gotten the pills ("skittles"), but had obtained a quarter pound of marijuana ("QP of some Private") for Culbreath in addition to the original three pounds of methamphetamine and six extra ounces of methamphetamine from Person #1's "stash."

34. Law enforcement records show that also on May 2, 2016, at approximately 4:29 p.m., Culbreath indicated to Boehm, "We gonna be good this week heavy with it." Your affiant knew this was a reference to Culbreath obtaining the three plus pounds of methamphetamine from Person #1, and advising Boehm to be ready to purchase it.

May 3, 2016, Person #1 sends parcel of methamphetamine and marijuana to Culbreath

35. Law enforcement records show that on May 3, 2016, at approximately 7:48 a.m., Person #1 indicated to Culbreath the following confirmation of the tracking number for the USPS parcel, "9505513009226123405105." Your affiant determined this parcel was shipped from Los Angeles, CA, on May 2, 2016, weighed approximately 10.19 pounds, and was destined for 1246 W. Walnut Street, Allentown, PA 18102.

May 4, 2016, USPS seizes parcel of methamphetamine and marijuana addressed to Culbreath

36. On May 4, 2016, the Philadelphia Division of USPIS identified a suspect U.S. Postal Service priority mail parcel, bearing priority mail number 9505513009226123405105 (the "Subject Parcel."). That parcel has the following characteristics:

Parcel Description:	9505513009226123405105 17.75" x 16.5" x 18.25" 10 pounds, 3 ounces
Return Address:	Frederick Person #1 1501 Miramar ave #309 LA, CA 90026
Delivery Address:	Larry Culbreath 1246 Walnut St. Apt#2 Allentown PA 18102

37. On May 4, 2016, at approximately 3:30 p.m., a Federal search warrant was obtained for the above Subject Parcel. USPI Herzog and your affiant recovered the following controlled substances from the parcel: three vacuum sealed packages each containing a crystal like substance, weighing approximately 455, 456, and 454 grams each (for a total weight of approximately three pounds), a smaller vacuum sealed package of a crystal like substance that weighed approximately 174.3 grams (or approximately 6 ounces), and a vacuum sealed package of suspected marijuana that weighed approximately 129 grams (approximately a 1/4 pound). Your affiant field tested a small amount of the crystal like substance from one of the three pound bags (as witnessed by USPI Herzog) and observed a positive result for the presence of methamphetamine. USPI Herzog processed the suspected methamphetamine and marijuana as evidence for submission to the USPS laboratory for further analysis.

38. Law enforcement sources confirmed Duggan and Culbreath spoke on May 4, 2016, about the package of methamphetamine not arriving on May 4, 2016. Culbreath in summary told Duggan that he had been waiting all day for the package and stated it was "here," but he was not in possession of it at that time. Duggan acknowledged and used coded language stating that he had obtained some extra methamphetamine from a different source because of the delay.

Conclusion

39. Based on the information above, I have concluded there is probable cause to believe that Jerome Lamont Duggan, a/k/a "Rome," Larry Haywood Culbreath, Jr., a/k/a "Harlem," and Erik Ryan Boehm, a/k/a "Rock," a/k/a "Rocky," a/k/a "Rocco" conspired and agreed with others known and unknown, to knowingly and intentionally distribute 500 grams or more of a mixture and substance containing a detectable amount of methamphetamine, a Schedule II controlled substance, in and around the Cities of Allentown and Bethlehem, Lehigh and Northampton Counties, the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846, 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A).
